

WCMHA Privacy Policy

Hockey Canada has developed this Privacy Policy for implementation beginning January 1, 2004. This Policy describes the way that Hockey Canada, its Branches and Associations collect, use, retain, safeguard, disclose and dispose of the personal information of prospective members, members, and others including players, coaches, referees, managers and volunteers.

This Policy describes the way that West Carleton Minor Hockey Association (hereafter referred to as WCMHA) will, subject to applicable legal requirements, adhere to all relevant federal and provincial legislative privacy requirements. The Policy follows the 10 Canadian Standards Association (CSA) principles identified in the federal Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA). The Policy describes each principle and the method of implementing each. WCMHA will strive to meet or exceed federal and provincial legislative requirements and will ensure that it remains current with changing technologies and laws. Any and all changes will immediately be posted to the WCMHA web site.

1. Accountability

1.1 WCMHA will appoint a staff/volunteer person (the "Privacy Officer") whose responsibilities will include those of the implementation and monitoring of the WCMHA Privacy Policy. The Privacy Officer will be responsible for WCMHA compliance with privacy principles. This person will also be responsible for responding to access requests in accordance with this Policy. The Privacy Officer will report to the President, or designate and the ultimate responsibility for Privacy issues will rest with the WCMHA Board of Directors. The Privacy Officer may at his/her discretion enlist assistance from other staff/Board members and/or volunteers within the organization. This will not in any manner mitigate his/her responsibility for Privacy issues.

1.2 The Privacy Officer's identity will be fully disclosed and publicly accessible to WCMHA members and the public in general. The Association Privacy Officer is the Director of Risk & Safety, contact information can be found on our website.

1.3 The WCMHA Privacy Officer will ensure that WCMHA manages all personal information in its possession in accordance with this Policy including that which may be transferred to a third party. Third party organizations who handle information on behalf of WCMHA shall be contractually obligated to adhere to the standards of "Branch/Association".

1.4 WCMHA will implement internal policies, which will facilitate adherence to this Privacy Policy including but not limited to the following:

- Security measures at all levels designed to protect personal information in our possession.
- Implementing procedures designed to respond to complaints and/or inquiries. " Staff/volunteer training in all facets of information management, including awareness of the WCMHA Privacy Policy and policies and procedures developed in accordance with the Policy.

2. Identifying Purposes, Type of Information Collected and Website

2.1 WCMHA shall only collect the information reasonably necessary to conduct Hockey Programming. Access to our Privacy policies and procedures will be readily available. Similarly, the process by which challenges may be made to WCMHA compliance and/or adherence to the legislation in question shall be readily available and transparent. To obtain further information, contact the Privacy Officer. The Association's Privacy Officer is the Director of Risk & Safety, contact information can be found on our website.

2.2 WCMHA collects personal information from prospective members, members, coaches, referees, managers and volunteers for the purposes of conducting Hockey Programming. Specifically:

- A player's name, address and date of birth are collected to determine that the player's geographical, division of play and level of play information are consistent with Hockey Canada/Branch regulations.
- Historical information concerning past teams played for is collected in order to determine if any WCMHA transfer regulations may apply.
- Information concerning an individual's skill level and development and feedback on programs is collected to measure the success of our programs in order that we may better plan future programs.
- Information as to a player's parents' name, address, telephone numbers and email addresses may be collected in order to facilitate emergency contact information as well as to ensure compliance with WCMHA residency regulations.
- Educational information may be collected in order to ensure all WCMHA residency regulations have been adhered to.
- E-mail addresses may be collected for the purposes of facilitating membership communication related to upcoming events and programs.
- Information about skill levels, ability, emergency contacts and health to ensure our activities are carried out in a safe and secure environment.
- Personal information collected for the purposes of hockey registrations may also be used for hockey specific research purposes including but not necessarily limited to hockey demographic type research.
- Affiliates. Hockey Canada and its Branches and/or Associations have numerous organizations which offer hockey programs under their auspices. These include, but are not necessarily limited to the Canadian Hockey League, Canadian Inter-University Sport and provincial and local Branches, associations, and leagues. Hockey Canada, its Branches and/or Associations may disclose the personal information described in paragraph 2.2 to all of these organizations in order to facilitate Hockey Programming and ensure compliance with rules and regulations.

2.3 WCMHA will endeavour through associations/leagues to advise potential registration candidates of the purpose for the collection of the data requested at the time of registration or by reference to our web site at www.hockeycanada.ca, or the local Association/Branch web site. We will further endeavour to ensure that all collectors of the personal information are familiar with the potential use of the personal data. All personal data collected by WCMHA shall be maintained in either our office(s) and/or with our Privacy Officer.

2.4 WCMHA will request individually permission for the use of any personal data collected which is extraneous to that which has been identified above, unless said usage is authorized by law.

2.5 WCMHA may also use information about an individual who accesses secure areas of www.hockeycanada.ca, or other member Branch/Association web sites. Information you are asked to provide during your use of our web site may include your name, address, e-mail address, age, sex [and the other types of personal information listed in paragraph 2.2].

All such personal information will be treated within the same parameters as other personal information collected by WCMHA through other means. It is always your choice to provide information in certain fields although failure to complete certain sections may inhibit your ability to fully access all areas of the web site. Our web site also collects non-identifiable information about users such as the users IP address, the sections of the web site visited and the information downloaded. WCMHA may use this non-identifiable information and disclose it to service providers, for system administration purposes and to improve the web site.

3. Consent

3.1 WCMHA will use the personal information for the uses specified above in section 2 and in Sections 3.2 and 3.3 below. By consenting to provide your information to WCMHA you are deemed to consent to our use of the information for the purposes of Hockey Programming listed in Section 2 of this Privacy Policy and to disclosure of the information to other associated organizations for the same purpose.

3.2 In addition to using personal information for Hockey Programming purposes, WCMHA may from time to time wish to use member name, address and contact information for the purposes of providing promotional opportunities, including by providing the information to WCMHA branches, leagues and associations and other third parties who WCMHA believes provide services or goods that may be of interest to you. WCMHA and any such third parties may contact you with promotions [or to provide further hockey specific communications and association/league Branch information updates]. WCMHA will provide an opportunity for the member to consent to these opportunities during the registration process. If you consent but later wish to opt out of this use of information later, you may do so by contacting us as described at Section 3.4 below.

3.3 WCMHA recognizes that hockey by its nature is a contact sport and injuries are to a certain extent inherent in the game. We believe medical records, medical history and medical forms of the individual may be of assistance in an emergency situation and therefore we may request them. While our members and prospective members are under no obligation whatsoever to supply this information and may refuse to do so without penalty, WCMHA will consider receipt of this information as consent for its subsequent use in an emergency medical situation.

3.4 If at any time you wish to withdraw your consent to the use of your information for any purposes, you may do so by contacting the Privacy Officer for "Branch/Association". We will do our best to accommodate your request in a timely fashion without diminishing the services we provide to you. We will explain to you the impact of your withdrawal on any services we provide to you.

3.5 WCMHA may collect personal information without consent where reasonable to do so and where permitted by law.

4. Limiting Collection

4.1. All information shall be collected fairly and lawfully within the criteria as set forth in our Privacy Policy.
